FAITH CHARITIES

One of the leading and largest charity law firms in the country.

Wrigleys is one of the leading and largest charity law firms in the country. Charities, and in particular faith organisations, are core to who we are and what we do. We serve religious orders, dioceses, church schools and many other organisations inspired by their faith.

Today's charity leaders have to navigate issues which would not even have been on the agenda a few generations back, and we know that can be deeply challenging, especially when added to an already large "to do" list!

With decades of experience of dealing with all sorts of faith-based charities, we can help deliver peace of mind and the knowledge that someone else is sorting out the legal aspects for you, leaving you to concentrate on the delivery of your mission.

We provide a wide range of legal advice but find that our Faith based clients often value assistance with:

- Constitutional issues
- Trustee responsibilities
- Incorporation and future-proofing
- Impact investment
- Employment
- Property
- Policies (including risk management and safeguarding)
- Dealing with the Charity Commission
